2 Corinthians 4:7-12

- 1) When have you seen someone glorify God while they were being afflicted, perplexed, persecuted, or struck down?

- 2) In our world, weaknesses are typically perceived as a negative and held against a person. If we consider the flipside of verse 7, what is the issue with a follower of Jesus having no weaknesses?

- 3) Read Galatians 2:20... How does Galatians 2:20 relate to 2 Corinthians 4:7-12?

- 4) Read each passage below and describe the positive outcome that flows out of weakness/persecution/trials:
 - 2 Corinthians 4:7
 - James 1:2-4
 - 1 Peter 5:9-10
 - Romans 5:3-5

- 5) 2 Corinthians 4:12 highlights that Paul and his associates were willing to minister in a way that death was a very real possibility for them, but they operated this way so that spiritual life would be possible for others. How should this impact the way you live? What could be a next step for you to live this way?
