Ecclesiastes 4

1) What is an injustice that often troubles you? What is something God has given you that frequently brings joy?

2) Read Ecclesiastes 4:4-6... How would you summarize these verses in your own words?

Based on the following passages, what kind of a balance should we find between toil and rest?

- Genesis 2:1-3
- Psalm 127:1-2
- Mark 6:30-31
- Luke 10:38-42

What could change in your routine to better balance toil and rest in the next month?

3) Read Ecclesiastes 4:9-12... What are the benefits of having two instead of one? Besides the literal benefits described, what implications do those benefits have for us today?

How many people have you allowed to be in your inner circle and know the deeper things about you?

Do you agree that having two close friends in your inner circle is better than one close friend? Why?

4) Read Ecclesiastes 4:13... Why is there a continual need to receive and heed advice, even later in life?

What can you do to foster relationships with people so they would feel comfortable giving you advice?
